

Chamber International Ltd.

Chamber International is multi-divisional company bringing together under one roof Marketing Consultancy, importation of industrial castings, and import/reselling of industrial chains and consumer products. The company, based in London, was established in 1998.

Marketing Consultancy Division

This division specializes in helping foreign companies seeking to do business in the UK. Chamber International's marketing consultants have successfully brought together many foreign companies with British strategic partners. Chamber works with a wide variety of companies across a broad range of commerce, industry and services and has many years experience finding the right joint-venture partner, reseller or marketing company for foreign companies seeking access to the large British and European markets.

Chamber has built up an extensive network of contacts covering the whole country and a wide spectrum of commerce and industry. Many satisfied clients have started gained entry to the large markets of the UK through the business "matchmaking" skills and contacts of Chamber International.

Company Structure

Chamber International operates out of a London office, but its great strength is its extensive network of sales agents throughout the country covering the entire United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland.

The Managing Director of the company, Mike Lenny, is a graduate of the University of Florida in Marketing. He speaks fluent Hebrew as well as English
